A forum for discussing, learning, teaching and moving international cooperation projects forward...

The 7th edition of the Forum will be an opportunity to capitalise on the strong international mobilisation as many delegates from «local and regional authorities» will be running a «country pavilion». It is also a chance to meet authority managers as well as public and private operators who could accelerate their local public services and land planning.

This year, our forum will witness an exciting upscaling with the dual focus of local economic diplomacy and sustainable land development, after the COP 21 last December and before the COP 22 in Morocco. An appeal for decentralised cooperation to encourage «life together» at a time when the world is witnessing serious and tangible tensions everywhere, events hosted by different French public sector representatives, focus meetings on demands from overseas authorities, talks by private operators recognised for their expertise... All these subjects and approaches will boost the usefulness of the Forum and the cohesion of everyone involved within their representative bodies!

Médéric PETIT, Forum General Director

Cités Unies France has been federating French authorities for 40 years committed to international actions. It is the place where concepts are imagined, where parliamentary and governmental lobbying takes place and where decentralised cooperation is organised.

500 members and a network of 5,000 French regional authorities committed to decentralised cooperation and nearly 13,000 projects in 145 countries...

Nearly 30 country groups, 10 themed groups, conferences, research trips overseas...

Contractual partnerships with French associations of local elected officials (AMF, AMGVF, ADF, ARF).

An activity developed in partnership with the UN, the French Development Agency, the European Commission, United Cities and Local Governments of Africa, United Cities and Local Governments, etc. who benefit from financial support from the French Foreign Office as part of the DAECT convention.

The monthly decentralised cooperation newsletter, a website and various publications help share information and advice...
